

Allenby's Blitzkrieg (2nd Ed.)

A 2 player game on the last great horse cavalry campaign in history.

Rating: Not Rated Yet

Price

Price £34.95

Ask a question about this product

Manufacturer SCHUTZE GAMES

Description

2nd Ed. BOXED VERSION

THE LAST CAVALRY CRUSADE

This is a 2 player game on the last great horse cavalry campaign in history. The game covers the first 48 hours of the offensive launched by General Edmund Allenby's army on the 19th September 1918 in northern Palestine (now Israel).

The battle commenced just before dawn on the 19th after a brilliant deception operation that ensured that the Turks were out of place. It pitted a British army consisting mostly of Indian and Australian troops against the Ottoman Turks.

The speed at which the British army's mounted units moved and the distances they covered during the 48 hours and immediately afterwards, exceeded the best efforts of the Germans in any of their WW2 Blitzkriegs.

COMPONENTS

- * 11x17 inch map representing northern Palestine.
- * 154 double sided counters on a sticker sheet shows the forces controlled by each player and markers.
- * One 8 page rulebook

STATISTICS FIX

Complexity: Average

Solitaire suitability: moderate

Time to play: approximately ?? hours

Map scale: ?? mile hexes

Unit size: Divisions

Turn length: ?

To tilt things a bit in the Turks favour (they need all the help they can get) swap these 5 counters for the originals