Description

Box has suffered some damage but contents in perfect un-punched condition

"Battles of Napoleon" is a new boardgame series with the goal of re-creating Napoleonic warfare at a tactical and operational level, using 1/72 figures to represent units and formations on modular game boards.

The rules are of average complexity, with enough detail to simulate the most important features of the battles of the Napoleonic age, such as formations, maneuver, the relevance of combined arms. At the same time, they are simple enough to be fun and playable for beginners.

Each set in the "Battles of Napoleon" series will include unpainted figures, modular boards, terrain elements, cards, dice, rules and scenarios. Different sets can be combined together to create larger battles.

Scenarios included

1. Maida (July 4, 1806)

2. Cerro De Medellin (Talavera, July 28, 1809)

Battle of Salamanca (July 22, 1812)

3. Miranda de Azun

4. Los Arapiles

5. Garcia Hernandez

One-Hundred Days Campaign

6. The Road to Namur (Quatre Bras, June 16, 1815)
