

Command Magazine (Czechoslovakia '38)

This game is a two-player wargame that simulates what might have been the first campaign of World War II in Europe if the Prague government rejected the Munich dictat. THE

Rating: Not Rated Yet

Price

Price £24.95

Ask a question about this product

Manufacturer XTR CORPORATION

Description

This game is a two-player wargame that simulates what might have been the first campaign of World War II in Europe if the Prague government rejected the Munich dictat. THE game includes a 34"X22" mapsheet, 142 counters, and 18 pages of rules. To win, the German player must attempt to crush Czechoslovakia by conquering come crucial territory before France and England decide to join the war. The Czech player wins by holding out until those two Allies intervene.