

Panzer Grenadier: Romanian Soil

Ready to take it to the field, the German Panzer Army staggered into Romania in the spring of 1944 hoping to do so the Red Army's offensive against Stalingrad. The German Panzer Army was the last to be defeated in the world of Panzer Grenadier. This is a supplement to the Panzer Grenadier series. The board game is the last in the series of the German line of Panzer Grenadier. It is the last in the series of the German line of Panzer Grenadier.

Romanian Soil: Battles for Targu Frumos 1944, is a supplement for the Panzer Grenadier series.

Rating: Not Rated Yet

Price

Price £7.95

Ask a question about this product

Manufacturer AVALANCHE PRESS

Description

In April 1944, the shattered remains of the German Army staggered out of Ukraine into Romania. Second Ukrainian Front deployed the awesome new Stalin tanks in an effort to outflank the well-built Romanian Strunga Line of fortifications to the south and east. The Germans had been badly defeated while the Romanian Army had spent the last year and a half recovering from its devastating defeats around Stalingrad. Neither seemed likely to put up serious resistance, but the Soviets had been weakened themselves by constant fighting and the Axis stand ended their offensive.

Romanian Soil: Battles for Targu Frumos 1944 is a supplement for the Panzer Grenadier series. There are ten scenarios, or separate game situations, based on the battles of April 1944 between the Soviet 2nd Tank and 27th Armies and the German 8th and Romanian 4th Armies. This module is not playable by itself, but requires ownership of our Eastern Front, Road to Berlin, Battle of the Bulge and Eisenborn Ridge games and our Red Warriors supplement.

Time: 30 minutes to many hours

Number of Players: 2

Scale: 200 meters per hex; units are platoons

Playing Pieces: Not included (not playable separately)

Playing Board: Not included (not playable separately)

Rules: 10 scenarios

Difficulty Level: 2 of 5

Solitaire Play: Excellent